

PREACHED RETREATS AT CHRIST THE KING RETREAT CENTER

Retreat Theme for 2009 - 2010

With Burning Hearts, Proclaiming Our Passion

Looking at the cross of Christ we see an ultimate truth. It is God's loving yet utterly surprising way of showing us that "my ways are not your ways" (Isa. 55:8). Is this not one of the hardest lessons to learn? Down through the ages, the paradox of the cross has been a stumbling block for many. Certainly the two disciples who left Jerusalem for Emmaus were lost by their interpretation, too. Yet, in the depth of their despair, the risen Christ seeks them out and challenges them to go back into the paschal story—and look again—and with burning hearts, they begin to understand God's way to life.

In your own life, do you see the gifts found in your failures, the strength you've discovered through weakness, the compassion nurtured through suffering? In other words, do we not learn true discipleship by learning from what is least expected in our lives? Do we not encounter the risen Christ by venturing into areas where we are fearful and slow

"...And with that their eyes were opened and they recognized the Lord, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem." [Luke 24:31-33]

to believe? For God uses what is seemingly impossible and illogical to open our eyes and our hearts, to broaden our vision so we may freely choose a deeper relationship with divine truth. Like the disciples on the road, it is with burning hearts that we come to see as God does, so that Christ's Passion becomes our passion.

Join us on retreat as we ponder the profound and paradoxical ways we come to life in Christ, and so discover that with burning hearts, how we become the light that proclaims Christ to the world.
